

Dated : 03-Sep-2018

RINL bags Excellent Energy Efficient Award

RINL has been bestowed with "Excellent Energy Efficient Award" by Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), Godrej Green Business Centre during 19th National Competition for Excellence in Energy Management held at Hyderabad.

PhotoCaption:

The award has been conferred on RINL for excellent efforts towards reduction of specific energy consumption, Energy Conservation, implementation of Energy Conservation Technologies, Energy Management System (ISO: 50001), Benchmarking, Road map to reduce energy consumption and waste recycling, various innovative projects during the year 2017-18. RINL achieved about 5.5% reduction in Specific energy consumption in 2017-18 over previous year. The award was given away by Sri Ajay Mishra, IAS, Spl. Chief Secretary, Dept. of Energy, Government of Telangana in the presence of Sri Pankaj Kumar, Secretary, BEE, Ministry of Power at a function held at Hyderabad. The Award was received by Sri T K Dey, DGM(EMD)/c, RINL along with his team on behalf of RINL-VSP. Sri P Raychaudhury, CMD, RINL commended VSP collective for the achievement and mentioned that the award truly reflects the commitment of the entire workforce. He exhorted them to achieve international benchmarking in energy consumption, one of the key parameter in steel making process.

Corporate Communications Dept.
RINL - VSP.