The information cannot be provided under Section 8(1) (j) of the RTI Act, 2005 as the information sought is record of disciplinary proceedings/ enquiries etc which are personal information and hence is exempted from disclosure of information. Further it has no relationship to any public activity or interest.

The Supreme Court's judgment in Girish Ramchandra Deshpande v. CIC, Court held that details recording proceedings of disciplinary inquiries were personal information, outside the ambit of the RTI Act. Also confirms the above.

The above information is furnished to the best of my knowledge and ability.

In case you desire to prefer an appeal against the information furnished, in pursuance with Clause no. 7(8) of RTI Act-2005, you may do so to the Appellate Authority designated by VSP as per details furnished below within a period of thirty days.
