Dear Sir,

As you are cognizant, the Ministry of Steel has formed the National Joint Committee for the Steel Industry. I have endeavored to acquire information via the Right to Information Act, 2005 under reference number MOSTL/R/E/24/00042, subsequently redirected to CPIO, RINL by the central Public Information Officer of the Ministry of Steel. However, the CPIO at RINL is unable to furnish details pertaining to certain inquiries i.e. Query No. 2 and 3.

Therefore, drawing upon the insights gleaned from RTI number RINLT/R/T/24/00014, an exhaustive explication is warranted for Query No. 2 (Please furnish information regarding the rules or labor laws governing the allotment of three nominated seats to each of the labor/trade unions INTUC, AITUC, HMS, CITU, and BMS within the NJCS.) and Query No. 3 (Despite the provision of recognized unions in all units of SAIL and RINL, I request information about any laws or regulations made by the Ministry of Steel regarding the allotment of three nomination quota seats to the five unions (INTUC, AITUC, HMS, CITU, and BMS) within the NJCS.)

Considering the NJCS is formed by the Ministry of Steel, Sir your prompt reply is warranted on this matter.
